

St Albans High School for Girls: Signed Lithographic Prints

by Ivel Muller

Ivel Muller's specially commissioned watercolours of Senior School and Wheathampstead House beautifully capture the unique spirit of our community. Originally presented to the school by the High School Society in memory of former Headmistress Carol Daly, the paintings are now available as A3 mounted lithographic prints, hand signed by the artist.

Available for just £20 per mounted print, the vibrant colours and careful detail of the panoramas will bring a smile to your face and a splash of colour to any room. While up close you can have fun spotting the people and places that make our school so special.

To order, simply complete the form below and return it to us. One-off canvasses also available to order. For details of this or for any other queries, please contact the Marketing Office.
