

WHY GIRLS' SCHOOLS WORK

International academic studies show that girls who attend girls' schools have unique advantages; they:

Perform better in examinations

Are less constrained in their choice of subjects. Participation in STEM subjects in particular is greater amongst girls in girls' schools

Have more opportunities to show leadership

Remain engaged in sport for longer

Show a greater propensity to take risks and innovate

Are less likely to conform to gender stereotypes

Are more successful in the job market